CMA USA

Pathway to be a Management Professional.

Certified Management Accountant (CMA) is the right course for you if you want to make a career in the field of management accounting and you are keen to get into consulting. It is provided by one of the esteemed Entities from the USA and that is the Institute of Management Accountants.

CMA USA makes you a complete professional by providing in-depth knowledge in the field of Finance and Costing which includes but not limited to Financial Planning, Business Analytics, Risk management, Investment Decisions, Corporate Finance and Information technology to make sure that you are competent enough to become a business leader in the management accounting field.

This Certification is a great value addition if you have prior work experience or professional career background and it is recognized worldwide since it gives you an edge over other professional course.

CMA USA with right skillset and communication knowledge will land you a dream job and provide you the handsome salary.

The path to complete CMA USA is not easy but it's definitely worth it, if you put the right efforts with the right mentor like theCMAguy aka Naveen J. You can become a qualified CMA USA in less than 6 months.

Learn from Real Professional and a Practitioner.

Naveen is a founder of theCMAguy and iProledge, a Start-up which has been proudly backed by IIM Bengaluru and he holds years of experience working with multiple Start-ups in India as well as in the USA.

He prioritizes education over anything and spends lot of time with students in guiding and mentoring them to pursue different professional courses and he teaches for CMA USA, CA and ACCA. Every day he keeps aside 2 hours to consult students and guide them through the right path.

His core experience lies in Costing, Finance and Strategic Management. He takes EIS-SM for CA Inter Students which is considered as the toughest paper in CA Inter. Students joining his classes will get personalised attention and gain the business knowledge which is required in the real life and not just the bookish knowledge.

After a lot of research, conversations and numerous cups of coffee, theCMAguy has come into existence to provide personalised and well-defined coaching to CMA USA students with all the required elements and tools to pass the exams without a miss.

His approach towards problem solving and style of appearing for the exams are something noteworthy and which you can inculcate in your preparation

Learning with Naveen at theCMAguy is more of an experience than just another academy or coaching centre. He has helped 500+ Students in 1 year and you are definitely missing out on something big in your CMA USA Journey.

What are you waiting for then? Do join and start a full proof CMA USA Success Journey with theCMAguy.

By the way, you can also schedule a call to e-meet and get more info on the same.
